IN SOCIETY CIRCLES.

First, Party of the "Assembly" Dancing Club.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Personal Items of Interest About Tepena People and Visitors in Town.

The Assembly club more than realized the anticipations of the members in its initial party last evening, and the success of the club is unquestioned. Around the singe in Library hall was a high banking of palms and white chrysanthemuma and the radiators were decorated with paims and draped in delicate blue. The landing on the stairway was costly arranged with a divag under a pink shaded pinno lamp, and the rooms on either kinds, and refresh in the dining room.

arranged for tete a tetes and oards. The Miss Carrie Clark one on the right was in pink and white with chrysanthemums in those shades, white rugs and a pink shaded piano lamp. There were several cosy corners noon of next week. conveniently located around the hall, and sandwiches and coffee were served during the entire evening on the stage. The music was fine, the ladles were will return to Mont Clare, Ill., tomor-specially gowned for the occasion, and row. Mrs. B. T. Lewis will accompany the electric light globes in red, white and blue, shed a soft radiance over them that was wonderfully becoming. the university with Albert Although the Assembly club boasts of no spend Sunday.

officers, the success of the club and the Mrs. D. F. Longenecker returned to party last evening are directly due to Mr. W. J. Black, who planned the organization and was ably assisted in the details by several other gentlemen. Those present last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Quinton, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Quinton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Noble has issued cards for a luncheon on Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. M. Noble has issued cards for a luncheon on Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. M. Noble has issued cards for a luncheon on Wednesday.

Things, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hankla, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Horner, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wear, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobart, Mr.

Facts and Fancies Journd Down in the Dailback velvet ribit and with white Wear, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobart, Mr. and Mrs. Pani Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hail, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. George Seward, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lingafelt, Mr. and Mrs. Will Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Capper, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hail; Mrs. D. F. Longenecker of Emporis. Misses Alice Hood of Emporis. Mame Atchison.

Alice Hood of Emporia, Mame Atchison, Mattie Jones and Lou Taylor of Leavenworth, Fannie Spencer of Chicago, Mary and Irene Horner, Myra Williams, Madge and Mabel Johnson, Margaret Mulvane, Nellie Peffer, Edna Best, Theresa Ros-sington, Jessie Small, Hortense Kelly, Heren Scott, Margaret Dudley, Eleanor Wilson, Nellie Clough, Glenna Cross, Gertrude and Mary Roberts, Nora Norris and Mary McCabe. Mesara W. H. Rossington, Edward Wilder, Eugene Hagan, W. J. Black, Seymour Davis, Chas. Allen, Jarrell, Ed. Horner, Frank Thomas, E. Henderson, Cliff Histed, Ben Akers, Julin Posten, D. W. Mulvane, Walter Noble, Geo. Crawford, Chas. Thomas, Theodore Hammatt, Walter Burgess, Sanz Clark, Frank Edson, Eph Kepley, Geo. Rust, Al Evans, J. B. Furry, Court Farmer, R. R. Peterson, Frank Clough of Leavenworth and Archie Williams. Miss Grace Weiss Party.

Miss Grace Weiss entertained about furty of her friends at a delightful dancing party last evening. The rooms were decorated in white and yellow chrysanthemums, passion vine and palms and the hostess received her guests in a gown of blue hearietta trimmed in cardinal velvet. She was assisted by Miss haven't braced up to it yet." Nellie Small and her guests were:

Misses Edna Crane, Myrtle and Iva Davis, Grace Curtis, Mabel Knowles; Libbie Hazlett, Lillian and Anna Whitlock, Bessie Stewart, Norma Smith, Edna Carpenter, Vera Low, Craudie Packard, Jessie Shellabarger, Cleo Ewart, Lillian Telli, Josephine Colby, Lela Saxton. Player, Mamie Hambleton, Mary Whit-tin Edna Morehouse, Messra. Clyde Grubbs, David Harvey, Jay Keeler, Cliff Chamberlain, Fred McGiffen, Fred Gillett, Ralph Valentine, George Kilmer, Dean and Homer Low, Frank Davis, Harmon Ryus, Harry Wood, Theo Thomas, Ralph Moore, Wilson Lauck, David Lakin, Floyd McDonald, Frank Ohmer, Walter Smith, Martin Britton, Oscar Wolverton, Clarence Dennis, Tom CI-ments Charles Tipton, Howard Wood Harry Williams, John Dixon and Rassie

Mrs. C. G. Foster Entertains. Mrs. C. G. Poster is entertaining twenty young ladies this afternoon for Miss stand Parker, whose wedding takes place on the 7th, and "needles" in one corner of the invitations suggested the prescribed mode of enjoyment. Her home is decorated in white chrysanthemums and Miss Maud Parker and Margaret Mulvane will add to the pleasure of the afternoon with recitations. The invited girls were: Gertrude and Mary Roberts, Rosamond Horton, Alice Pres-cott, Flora Mayo, Margaret Weiss, Carrie Clarkson, Lulu Manspeaker, Edith Camppell, Pearl McFarland, Bessie West, Franc Littlefield, Myrtle Davis, Margaret nulvane, Madge and Mabel Johnson, Mrs. Fred Freeman, Mrs. W. R. Ewing and Mrs. William Taylor. General Social Notes.

Miss Mame Atchison came over from Leavenworth yesterday to spend Sun-

Miss Mame Horton has just recovered from a two weeks siego with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mr. W. L. Trump and Miss Nellie Kitts of Ottawa, will be married the 21st of this month at noon in Ottawa. Elwood Peffer has returned from California and will remain in the city until Mr. and Mrs. Los Jones entertained the following friends at a very pleasant course dinner last evening, followed by cards: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Parkhurst, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cruise, Mra. C. A. Ransom, Miss Martie Whaley; Messrs. F.E. Nipps, W. A. Smith and John Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. John Small and son are spending Sunday at Maple Hill.

Mrs. S. C. Kersey and Miss Bowes will visit Kansas City next week. Senator and Mrs. Peffer and daughter Nellie leave Tuesday for Washington, D. C. They will visit Nebraska en-

Theo. Thomas has returned from several month's sojourn in Mexico.
Mr. J. Lynn Smith arrived yesterday

Mrs. Clara Campbell and daughter Edith, are the guests of Mrs. M. A. Low until they depart for Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Fuller and children returned Thursday from Boston, Miss Evaline S. Clarke of Portland, jail again.

Maine is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. D. Puller, at 1016 Tyler street. George Koehler will spend Sunday in Kansas City. Miss Margaret Mulvane will entertain at cards on Tuesday evening of next

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills entertained a dozen friends at a supper after the Assembly club party last evening.

The first imperial club party will be on the 16th of this month in Library

The girls who danced with so much vigor last night, are exchanging confi-dences today on the folly of frivoling, nothing aloud. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lord will entertain ninety young people at a dancing party this evening, for Misses Janet and Lucy Lord, Rebecca Rodgers and Scott Lord. The parlors will be arranged for dancing, the library for games of various kinds, and refreshments will be served friends at a reception on Friday after-the university with Albert Horton to closing under choux or rosettes of the Emporia today. D. S. Shellabarger of Illinois, is visit-ing his brother, J. L. Shellabarger. Miss Myrtle Jetmore has issued invitations for a reception on the 14th, from on each sleeve were resettes of Italian Miss Nellie Small will entertain a few magenta. These resettes are made full friends informally this evening.

Mrs. Geo. M. Noble has issued cards his destiny, her father. In vain she pointed out to him the necessity of the step. In vain she threatened to go her-self. The youth promised every day that he would surely ask the paternal consent that night. One evening he called at an early hour and she decided that the matter might as well be settled be seen everywhere and on almost evnounced joyously, "papa is in a rare good humor. He's in the library couckling over a comic paper. Go! My blessing with you."

The young man crossed the hall and disappeared behind the library portiones. The young woman counted the minutes, walked the floor, tried to read and conducted herself generally as distracted maidens are wont to. An hour passed.

Still the layers law of the minutes, sired. It is made to resemble a double hollyhock. It takes much ribbon for one of these, but that appears to be the prime object, for no dress is a dress this Still the interview was not ended. What awful secret of his past was the young man confiding to her father. She wrung her hands in suspense. Callers came. Two hours passed, but the awful conference was not over. At 10:30, two hours and three-quarters after the suitor entered the library, the overwrought girl could endure it no longer. She crossed over into the library. There sat her father, calm, though looking a little harassed, and her fiance nervous and all at ease. The conversation became general, Finally she arose to draw the curtain. The

There is a current story rogarding a young woman who has espoused the cause of suffrage on various occasions. When her engagement was announced a couple of weeks ago her young brother said: "Sister's going to be married, and to Telli, Josephine Colby, Lela Saxton, just an ordinary man! Did you think Mabel Chase, Grace Van Houten, Kittle she'd ever be so foolish."

> Most of the women who ride bicycles set a good example in posture to the men. As a rule they sit quite erect, much more so than does the average waman on a horse. The contrast with the monkey-like position of most of the young men cyclists is greatly in the girls' tableaux from Gibson's pictures on handsome evening wear than anything Thursday evening in Library hall.

REVIVAL OF THE BUSTLE. inr Favor.

hands in terror and the thin women are ing. Some of the most elegant of these gleeful over the possible revival of the jet trimmed gowns have a plain gown bustle. The first intimation of this old made and then the jetted lace applied deformity that found so much favor in flat and sewed firmly to the goods. One the feminine eye, is seen in the now organ-pipe skirt. It is the skirt of the dress had a very rich trimming of lace season, and resembles in a marked de- applied in this manner and all the lace gree the bustle of the past.

plaits at the back. The plaits stand out prominently and are padded ten inches from the waist line. Over the hips the black reps, with a handsome beaded skirt fits with glove-like smoothness flaring toward the bottom. A prominent Topeka dressmaker, Mrs. W. J. Mercer, who is thoroughly posted on the freaks of fashion in the east says that, in her opinopular again. "There are women," she a very refined and stylish costume. says, "who have never discarded the busthe entirely. Women who are naturally that is a season of elegant dressing. It flat have a small pad placed in their drass- takes the place of the "Verninage" in s, and since this new skirt has come in Paris. I saw two gowns that are to be that does away with the pad and makes it more comfortable. I believe that the majority of the women would rise up in their objection to a hump of any size and down it with more speed than they did the hoop skirt revival."

COLLINGSWORTH FREE.

The Ward McAllister of the Topeks Talent Let Out of Jail Today. John P. Collingsworth, the leader of the Topeka gambling frateraity who can give all the rest of them points on everything pertaining to the game, was re-Early in September Judge Hazen senenced him to 60 days and $200 fine on his plea of guilty to two counts of selling sheen in the foldings as an overbloom, iquor. His time is up and today Collingsworth dug deep into his trousers The other gown is of soft bluish gray pocket and brought forth a roll of bills repped bengaline, made with a stiff, that was too big to go into an old sock. He paid his fine and the accrued costs, which amounted to about $80, and went to one of the leading kotels where he proposes to live all winter. He says he doesn't know what he will do but he says he will be careful to do nothing anothered in lace and ribbon. that would get him back in the county

PUFFS AND RUFFLES.

FLUFFS AND FRILLS OF THE NEW EVENING WAISTS.

They Are of Bright Colors, and the Sleeves Are as Big as Balloons Some Handsome Gowns-Olive Harper's Fashion

[Special Correspondence.] NEW YORK, Nov. 1 .- The new waists for very dressy evening wear look indeand the men are looking wise and saying | scribably vulgar and showy when seen in the stores, as the colors are glaring, and the fluff and puff hang in a crumpled mass, but when some pretty girl gets one on, with a darker skirt, but one that "goes," with the color in the waist, it is quite another affair. The puffs and ruffles are then made to take their proper places, and the whole is as Miss Carrie Clarkson will return today | dainty as it was common before. These waists have foundations of silk, yellow pink, mauve green or red, and they fit the figure perfectly. The tulle, creps lisse, chiffon or silk muslin, whichever The Pansy club will meet with Mrs.

Arthur Murphy Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Miller and daughter Edith fered or plainly gathered. The sleeves are as large as they can be made, and there is nothing small about them except the waist line. The neck is finish-Mr. Todd of Atchison come up from ed off sometimes with a draped collar, same material or perhaps in another and contrasting color

I saw some today that were white as banks of wind blown snow, and on the collar, on the belt, on the bust and one crape pinked out and in the most vivid church of St. Simon, the Cyrenian (colored Episcopal). Evening service and sermon at 4:30 p. m. Rev. Guy W. Miner, minister, in charge.

Cavalry Mission (Episcopal), 90214 east Fourth street. Rev. Irving Todd, minister, in charge. Evening service as they can hold, so that they set up quite round, like cauliflowers. They looked like splotches of fresh blood from Facts and Fancies Jotted Down in the Dai-ly Notebook.

They had been engaged for three or pink made it look like candy. One blue Richmond, Va., where he has been atfour weeks, and still the young man one bepuffed and befrilled to an inconfeared to approach the final arbiter of ceivable degree had at the throat a bow, with ends of white talle so large and full that the wearer's face will be almost lost behind it. Almost all have sets of ribbon to match, which are to be worn as sashes or to fasten on the skirts.

These fluffy little resette bows are to "The time is come," she an erything-hats, bonnets, dresses for growups and freeks for children-and I find they are made by gathering one edge of the ribbon or other material just as full as it will hold and then sewing it around until it is as large as is deseason without ribbon on it somewhere.

Fur, lace and ribbon combine to make a trimming that shall leave nothing to be desired, but jet and jetted laces are

REP AND JET VISITING GOWN.

There will be some clever hits in the more sought after for silks for home or else. Some of the black grosgrains are more like coats of mail than anything else, they are so covered with the Indications That It May Return to Popu- gleam and glitter of the beads. They are striking and make a great display The big women are holding up their of richness both by daylight and evenmesh between the jet tracings cut out, The skirt is very full, lined with hair-leaving the jet upon the heavy gros-cloth and arranged in four or two box grain as though originally sewed there-lace applied in this same manner all around the skirt and on the collar. There was a drapery of the reps across the bast, and this was also bordered on on the old style bustle will never be the lower edge in the same way. It was

> The horse show will soon begin, and worn there, and one will be worn later in the same evening at a very swell function. One is made for Miss Elita Proctor Otis, the clever and beautiful young actress. It is of coral pink velutina, made with a demitraine and trimmed with cream white point de venise all around the bottom. The waist is round and has a draping of velutina and lace across the front, surplice style. It Is high in the neck, and the collar is of draped velutina, with shirrings at the sides held by frosted silver buckles. The sleeves are draped balloons, with the forearms covered with the lace. The coral velutina has a sort of silvery and it makes a most superb costume. godet plaited skirt, trimmed with a festooned flounce of cream valenciennes. each festoon having a chon of blue rib-

OLIVE HARPER

Church of Christ, scientist, 210 west Sixth street; Willis F. Gross, pastor. Preaching 11 a.m. Subject: "The Sec-ond Death."

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES.

Madison Street Baptist church; W. F.
File, pastor. Preaching morning and evening. Sunday school at 10 a.m. The Lord's supper after morning sermon.
Baptism in afternoon.
One of the "Hebrew Children;" a converted Few will preach at the North Topeka mission, on Kansas avenue, near river, at 3 o'clock Sunday, November 4, and perhaps in the evening.

North Topeka Baptist church; morning subject: "The Holy Spirit;" followed by communion service. Evening subject: "Why I Belleve the Bible."
Miss Lyde A. McCool will speak Sab-Evening bath evening at Liberty United Presby terian church on the subject: "Whom Shall We Fear?" Services at 7:30.

Second Adventists meet at the residence of Mr. Welty, northwest corner of, Twelfth street and Washburn avenue, at 2 p. m. Subject: "Jesus Lord of the Sabbath."

First Unitarian society; preaching at 11 a.m. by the pastor, Rev. A. Wyman. Subject: "The Dream of a Universal Subject: Religion." Services at Cumberland Presbyterlan church Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath school at 3 p. m. E. M. Wright, pastor. Grace Cathedral (Episcopal), Polk and Eighth streets. The Very Reverend Frank R. Millspaugh, dean. Litany and Holy Communion with sermon by the bishop at 11 a. m. Evening song and sermon at 4:30 p. m. Church of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal), North Topeka. Rev. Guy W. miner, pastor. Evening service and sermon at 7:30 p. m. Church of St. Simon, the Cyrenian tending the national convention of the Christian church, and he will occupy the pulpit of the First Christian church

Sunday morning and evening.

First Presbyterian church, Rev. S. B.
Alderson, pastor. Morning subject:

"Unconsecrated Service the Peril of the Church, Evening, Rev. D. Hubbard of the Friends' church will preach.

Spiritualism, Lincoln post hall, east Sixth street. Conference at 11. Mr. Searing will continue his lecture on construction spiritualism at 7:30 p. m. Subject "Heredity and Psychology as side. Opposed to Theosophic Reincarnation." m. rrow at 10:33 a. m. Sunday school at 2:15 p. m.

Second Baptist church, First street, Rev. G. D. Olden, pastor; 11 a.m. preaching and the administration of Lord's sup-:30 p.m., subject, "The Convention at

After every trial the high position of Dr. Price's Baking Powder is better as-

NORTH TOPEKA.

Items of Interest from the North Side of the River.

Tom Ewan returned yesterday from the western part of the state. Charles Kistler shipped a trio of buff coachin chickens to Leavenworth yesterday, for which he received $15. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bannister of Kansas City are visiting Mrs. Baunister's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Irons.

Mrs. Short of Rochester returned yeserday from New York, where she has been for some time visiting her daugh-

Arthur Kane went to Emporia today to referes the foot ball game between the college eleven of that place and the Washburn team.

There will be a social danc out Lukens' | paints. opera house Wednesday evening, Nov. I, for the purpose of organizing a dancing club. You are invited. L. L. Terrell and Mrs. Mattie Burns, who have been here for the past week visiting their cousin, Mrs. G. F. Kimball, returned to their home in Missouri yes-& Son, 821 Kan ave. Established 1870. A complete line of homocopathle remedies at A. J. Arnold & Son's.

a north side shoe store this morning, colors in this narrow ribbon is necessible read: "Notice. Any bets from sary. Use a bodkin to draw them ben of the G. A. R. and Mrs. Edith M. Woods, president of the W. R. C. will be at Blue post hall at the next meeting of the organization and will deliver ad-

John Ferguson, who lives at 1203 Topeks avenue, lost his horse, buggy and harness Halloween and has failed to locate them yet. The miscreants went o his stable, hitched the horse to the buggy and drove off.

Sunday evening at the North Baptist church will begin a series of four ser- and Nile-green, painted with daisies, mons on "The Beason Why," as follows:
"Why I believe the Bible," "Why I am a Christian," "Why I am a Church Member," "Why I am a Baptist."

Ike Bernstein is up from Memphis to spend a few days with his mother. asked why he did not stay down there until after election and vote he said his vote would be cast all right as he left his registration cartificate there in proper hands. He says they take care of all uch matters down there.

Evangelist Rose will preach at the North Christian church tonight and on Sunday, morning and evening. Subject this evening: "Is the Bible inspired?" Subject Sunday evening: "The Divinity of Jesus." Mr. Rose contemplates delivering one of his popular lectures on Wednesday evening.

Read the "Wanta." Many of them are as interesting as news items. See if it is not so.

Physicians prescribe Ayer's Pills as the fastest and most perfect cathartie

Do you want fine laundry work? Try the Topeka Steam Laundry.

WESTERN

Foundry Machine Works,

ESTABLISHED 1875. FORMERLY

Topeka Foundry and Machine Works ESTABLISHED 1888.

R. L. COFRAN, Proprietor.

MANUFACTURER OF STEAM ENGINES, MILL MACHINERY, SHAFTING, PULLIES, GEARINGS, FITTINGS, ETC.

Write for Prices.

TOPEKA, KANSAS.

Will you pay 6 and 7 dollars for shoes when you can buy them in the latest styles and all the width from AA to EE, for 3, 4 and 5 dollars at W. M. HORD'S, Exclusive Dealer in MEN'S FINE SHOES, SLIPPERS

No. 527 Kansas Ave.

The (remerie SCOTT & SCOTT,

Proprietors.

IS HERE TO STAY. YOUR TICKETS WILL BE HONORED AT ALL TIMES.

A Firstclass Lunch and Short Order House. TABLE AND COUNTER SERVICE.

Opposite Transfer Station.

Cars From All Depots to Our Doors.

734 KANSAS AVENUE.

VERY PRETTY BAG.

Something Which Any of Our Girl Read-ers Can Make Readily. Get a yard each of contrasting colors of satin ribbon about 436 inches in width, overseam them together by the

Taking this now broad piece of two-German Lutheran church, corner Van Baren and Second streets. Services toa graceful design in flowers. Impression paper is likely to soil the ribbon, so the easiest way to do this is to draw on ordinary white paper, ink it so that it will show clearly, hold it and the ribbon up to the window and trace in through with a sharp pencil.

PRETTY AND USEFUL BAG.

Daintier effects may be obtained by using moist water colors, instead of oil

After the design is finished fold the ribbon in half and overseam it together on each side, keeping the selvidge on the right side. If neatly done this gives a cord effect, and is better than making a regular wrongside seam. Make a four-inch hem at the top, and about three-quarters of an Take your prescriptions to A. J. Arnold | inch from the stitching of the hem make another stitching all around the bag; this forms a casing for a half-inch wide ribbon as a draw-A large card was hung out in front of ing string. A yard of each of the two sary. Use a bodkin to draw them satin ribbon is heavy enough to do away with any necessity for this. The LUCKHART & FERNSTROM. magnesia should be carefully brushed off the wrong side of the ribbon as soon as the painting is dry, and just before sewing the bag together. Pretty combinations are violet and white ribbon painted with the two colors in violets, the white violets on the violet ribbon and vice versa; pale pink and crimson and gold, painted with crimson and yellow carnations.-Gertrude B. Duffee, in St. Louis Republic-

Precisely.

"Grandpa, what does 'D. F. ' mean?" "Nowadays, my boy, it means a young man who is quite 'smart.' "—Life.

A Close Call. Dud-I had a close call last night.

Spud-How? Dud-Man in the room next to mins lalked to me an hour over the transom. "Stewart" stoves at Shelden & Shelden | - Detroit Free Press.

Topeka, Kansas,

He sold ice and broke The ice combine.

Buy coal of him cheap As the cheapest.

> GOOD WEIGHT. GOOD COAL.

Stop the wagon or leave orders at 121 West Sixth Street. Harrison Telephone 140.

R. E. JONES.

$3 SHOE NO EQUEARING $5. CORDOVAN.

BROCKTON, MASS which read: "Notice. Any bets from $100 to $10,000 on Morrill." It was signed by R. B. McMasters.

The Young Married People's club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kistler on Monroe street next Friday evening for the purpose of reorganizing and planning for the winter's campaign.

Department Commander W. P. Campber of the G. A. R. and Mrs. Edith M.

The advantage of a bag like this is that it does not have to be lined, as fine through the casing will come, as little openings for the ribbon drawstring.

The advantage of a bag like this is that it does not have to be lined, as fine through the easing, one color on each through the easing, one color on each BROCKTON, MAZS.

Yeu can save money by purchastic W. Lassers are the largest manufacturers of a little opening for the purpose of reorganizing and planning for the winter's campaign.

The advantage of a bag like this is that it does not have to be lined, as fine always speaks for itself, and for you too. If you want some up-to-date, good printing send your copy, or come tack it over Charles Worrali. Electric Printer. 807 KANSAS AVENVE. ****

818 Kansas Ave., NORTH TOPLKA

You can reach the Southwestern Fuel company by either Missouri & Kanage or new Harrison telephone if you need Belleville Hotel Cloved, BELLEVILLE, Kan., Nov. R .- Brown's hotel has been closed on a mortgage held by the National bank of Belleville and an attachment was also served on the fittings of the house.

If you want a load of best Lehigh anthracite, any size, we can fill your order quick.

THE SOUTHWESTERN FUEL COMPARY, 634 Kamsas Avenue